MISSION STATMENT

To become a web developer in a creative tech large organisation.
Working in small teams encouraging each other for the good of our business and our clients.Working in the service industry has aloud me to see the importance of getting know people and understanding people needs. My diverse skill set provides me with a multidisciplinary perspective to problem solve, design and develop.